email: LF503@albany.edu

EDUCATION:

1980 Ph.D. in language and psychology, University of Connecticut.
1978 M.A., University of Connecticut.
1973 B.A., Major: Psychology and French, Wellesley College, MA.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE:

1978-present. Senior Research Scientist. Haskins Laboratories. New Haven, CT.
Steering Committee: 1994-1995. 1998-1999.

Spring 2004, 2005. Beijing Normal University, China. Visiting Researcher.

Fall 2003. Spring 2003, 2005. Max-Planck-Institut fur Psycholinguistik. NL. Visiting Researcher.

Fall 1996. Max-Planck-Institut fur Psycholinguistik. NL. Visiting Researcher.

1983-1984. Exchange Scientist. National Academy of Sciences.

Spring 1979-1993. Visiting Researcher. Faculty of Electrical Engineering and Laboratory of Experimental Psychology. University of Belgrade, Yugoslavia.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

1996-present. Professor. SUNY, The University at Albany.

1992-1996. Associate Professor. SUNY, The University at Albany.

1990-1992. Assistant Professor. SUNY, The University at Albany.

1984-1987. Assistant Professor (nontenure track). University Honors Program and Psychology. University of DE.

1982-1983. Visiting Assistant Professor. Dartmouth College.

1975-1979. Teaching Assistant. University of Connecticut.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS:

Psychonomic Society (1983-). Session Chair. 1989. 1990. 1991. 1992. 1994. 1999. 2003.

European Society for Cognitive Psychology (1991-). Session Chair. 1995. 1998. 2003.

Eastern Psychological Association (1993)

College of Reviewers for the Canada Research Chairs Program

EDITORIAL BOARD:

Feldman, L. B. (1980, April). Phonological strategies in lexical decision and naming. Paper presented at Sabor Psihologia, Zlatibor, Yugoslavia.

Feldman, L. B. (1982, April). Bi-alphabetism in beginning readers. Paper presented at the NATO Conference on Acquisition of Symbolic Skills, University of Keele, England.

*Feldman, L. B. (1984, May). Morphemic Relations as a Principle of Lexical Organization. Yugoslav Conference of Psychologists. Herceg Novi, Yugoslavia.

*Feldman, L. B. (1985, July). The use of phonological and morphological information by readers of Serbo-Croatian. Paper presented at the Center for Interdisciplinary Research. Conference on Common Processes in Speaking, Listening, Reading and Writing. Bielefeld, Germany.

*Feldman, L. B. (1989, August). The contribution of morphology to word recognition. Workshop on Word and Sentence Recognition. Zadar, Yugoslavia.

*Frost, R., Feldman, L. B., and Katz, L. (1989, August). Phonological ambiguity and lexical ambiguity: Effects on visual and auditory word recognition. Workshop on Word and Sentence Recognition. Zadar, Yugoslavia.

Feldman, L. B., and Frost, R. (1992, September). Morphological processing in concatenative and nonconcatenative languages. Paper presented at the European Society for Cognitive Psychology, Paris, France.

Feldman, L. B., Pugh, K., Katz, L., and Larabee, J. (1994, September). Morphological and orthographic analysis in word recognition contrasted. Paper presented at the European Society for Cognitive Psychology, Lisbon, Portugal.

Feldman, L. B., (1995, September). Morphological aspects of language processing. Paper presented at the European Society for Cognitive Psychology, Rome, Italy.

*Feldman, L. B., and Siok, W.T. (1997, September). A radical approach to Chinese character recognition. Keynote paper presented at the International Symposium on Cognitive Processing of the Chinese Language: The Inaugural Conference of the Chinese Language-Cognitive Science Joint Research Centers The Chinese Academy of Sciences & The University of Hong Kong. Hong Kong.

Feldman, L. B. (1998, September). Semantic and orthographic aspects of morphological processing. Paper presented at the First International Conference on the Mental Lexicon. Edmonton, Alberta.

Feldman, L. B. (1998, September). Semantic aspects of morphological processing. Paper presented at the European Society for Cognitive Psychology, Jerusalem, Israel.

Raveh, M., and Feldman, L. B. (1998, September). The contribution of morphological relation and affix position to morphological processing: Evidence from Hebrew. Paper presented at the European Society for Cognitive Psychology, Jerusalem, Israel.

- *Feldman, L. B. (1999, May). The time course of morphological processing. Paper presented at Workshop on Cross-Linguistic Perspectives on Morphological Processing. Aix-en-Provence, France.
- DeJong, N., Baayen, H., Schreuder, R., and Feldman, L. B. (2000). Morphological families influence processing of compounds. Paper presented at the Second International Conference on the Mental Lexicon. Montreal, Quebec.
- *Feldman, L. B. (2000, October). Morphological processing: Graded effects of form and semantics. Keynote Address presented at the Second International Conference on the Mental Lexicon. Montreal, Quebec.
- Pastizzo, M.J., and Feldman, L. B. (2000, October). Modality specific influences on morphological processing: Graded effects of form and semantics. Paper presented at the Second International Conference on the Mental Lexicon. Montreal, Quebec.
- *Feldman, L. B., and Pastizzo, M. J. (2001, June). Lexical and sublexical contributions to morphological processing. Paper presented at Workshop on Cross-Linguistic Perspectives on Morphological Processing. Nijmegen, The Netherlands.
- *Feldman, L. B., and Honorof, D.V. (2001, July). Contrasting Chinese radicals and English morphemes: A time course analysis. Workshop on Chinese language processing. UC Santa Barbara, CA.
- *Feldman, L. B., Janack, T., and Pastizzo, M. J. (2002, October). Morphological analysis as revealed by a Segmentation Task. Paper presented at the Third International Conference on the Mental Lexicon. Banff, Alberta.
- Janack, T., Feldman, L. B., and Pastizzo, M. J. (2002, October). Individual differences among neighbors. Poster presented at the Third International Conference on the Mental Lexicon. Banff, Alberta.
- Pastizzo, M. J., and Feldman, L. B. (2002, October). Morphological processing: A comparison between free and bound stem facilitation. Poster presented at the Third International Conference on the Mental Lexicon. Banff, Alberta.
- *Feldman, L. B., Pastizzo, M. J., and Janack, T. (2003, June). Insights into the morphological family: interactions of family size, surface frequency and transparency. Paper presented at Workshop on Cross-Linguistic Perspectives on Morphological Processing. Aix-en-Provence, France.
- Feldman, L. B., Janack, T., and Pastizzo, M. J. (2003, October). Morphological processing varies with concreteness and family size. Paper presented at the European Society for Cognitive Psychology, Granada, Spain.
- *Feldman, L. B., Jarema, G., and Libben, G. (October, 2003). Semantic aspects of morphological processing. SSHC Workshop. International Mental Lexicon Research Group Meeting. Austrian Academy of Sciences. Vienna, Austria.
- *Jarema, G., Feldman, L. B., and Perlak, D. (October, 2003). Morphophonological, neighborhood and orthographic effects in the processing of Polish nouns. SSHC Workshop. International Mental Lexicon Research Group Meeting. Austrian Academy of Sciences. Vienna, Austria.
- Jarema, G., Feldman, L., and Perlak, D. (February, 2004). Does form play a role in the recognition of nouns in Polish? 11th International Morphology Meeting 2004, Vienna, Austria.
- Jarema, G., Feldman, L. B., and Perlak, D. (June, 2004). Defining regularity: Does degree of phonological and orthographic regularity among Polish nouns influence morphological processing? Poster presented at the Fourth International Conference on the Mental Lexicon. Windsor, ONT.

Feldman, L. B., Kostić, A., and Pastizzo, M. J. (June, 2004). Mastery of inflectional morphology: Morphological facilitation for irregular but not regular verb formations in English depends on task as well as language proficiency. Poster presented at the Fourth International Conference on the Mental Lexicon. Windsor, ONT.

Feldman, L. B., and Brown, D. B. (2005, June). Semantic influences on morphological processing. Paper presented at the Fourth Workshop on Morphological Processing. Cambridge, UK.

Feldman, L. B., Kanai, K., & Basnight-Brown, D. (July 2006). Orthographic Neighborhood Size Interacts with Morphological Processing. Poster presented at the 28th Annual Conference of the Cognitive Science Society, July 2006, Vancouver, BC.

Brown, D. B., and Feldman, L. B. (2006, October). Monolingual and Bilingual Recognition of Regular and Irregular English Verbs: Sensitivity to Orthographic Similarity Varies with First Language Experience. Poster presented at the Fifth International Conference on the Mental Lexicon. Montreal, Quebec.

Feldman, L. B., and Brown, D. B. (2006, October). Parallels between forward masked semantic and morphological facilitation: Influence of list context invites a computational account of morphological processing. Paper presented at the Fifth International Conference on the Mental Lexicon. Montreal, Quebec.

Perlak, D., Feldman, L. B., & Jarema, G. (2006, October). Do diacritics influence word recognition? Poster presented at the Fifth International Conference on the Mental Lexicon. Montreal, Quebec.

Tsapkini, K. B., Feldman, L. B., Jarema, G. & Andravizou, A. (2006, October). Visual stem-allomorphy influences inflectional but not derivational processes in Greek. Poster presented at the Fifth International Conference on the Mental Lexicon. Montreal, Quebec.

Basnight-Brown, D. and Feldman, L. B., (2007, June). The processing of regular and irregular verb forms in English: The influence of first language structure and non-native accent on morphological processing. Poster presented at the Fifth Workshop on Morphological Processing. Marseille, France

Feldman, L. B., and Basnight- Brown, D. (2007, June). Semantic and Orthographic Attributes of the Stem Influence Morphological Processing as Revealed by the Forward Masked Priming Task. Paper presented at the Fifth Workshop on Morphological Processing. Marseille, France

Feldman, L. B., and Basnight- Brown, D. (2007, Sept). Morphological processing in English: Distortions based on nonnative accent and case alternation provide no evidence for a dichotomy based on inflectional regularity. Paper presented at ESCOP Marseille, France.

Feldman, L. B., and Basnight- Brown, D. & Kanai. Y. (Aug 2007). Effects of Morphological Family Size in the Forward Masked Lexical Decision Task. Poster presented at AMLaP. Turku, Finland

INVITED TALKS AT UNIVERSITIES AND RESEARCH CENTERS

Feldman, L. B. (1982, January). Lexical decision in Serbo-Croatian is necessarily phonological. Paper presented at the M.R.C. Applied Psychology Unit, Cambridge, England.
