

Sheila Curran Bernard
Department of History

Sponsor: New York Council for the Humanities
Amount: $2,500
Dates: March 15, 2010 – July 30, 2010

Louisa May Alcott: In Print and On Screen – a Public Discussion

Louisa May Alcott: In Print and On Screen seeks to foster public discussion about the role of humanities in the nation's cultural life, past and present, and the ways in which humanities content reaches and informs audiences, through discussion of Louisa May Alcott: The Woman Behind Little Women, a national book and film project.