Courses in Educational Administration & Policy Studies

E Est 300
Social Foundations of Education (3)
This course is offered online through the Blackboard Learning System. Inquiry into educational policies, purposes, and ideas based upon the resources and insights of the humanities and the social sciences. Only one of E Est 300 and E Est 301 may be taken for credit. Prerequisite(s): junior or senior class standing.
(1066) Giuliano, Gina
6 Week 2: June 20-July 29
Online course in Blackboard

Graduate Courses

E Aps 623
School Board and Community-School Relations (3)
Practices, issues, and principles of district-level leadership with regard to school board, intergovernmental relations, and effective communication with the community. Emphasis is placed on school district leaders working effectively with school board members and with senior school district managers in developing and implementing district policies and managing district affairs.
(2360) Jewell, Daralene
6 Week 1: May 23-July 1
TTh 6:00p.m.-9:30p.m.
ED-123

E Aps 687
Institute in Education: Diversity in Higher Education (1-9)
Special course, not part of the pattern of regular offerings, designed to meet particular nonrecurring needs. Available for department use and subject to department approval.
(2453) Alguero, Manuel
6 Week 1: May 23-July 1
MTWThF 9:30a.m.-10:50a.m.
HU-116

E Aps 896
School Leadership Internship I (2-4)
Participation in a year-long internship experience leading to New York State certification in school leadership. The first course of a three-course sequence. Includes a seminar. Prerequisites: Aps 600, Aps 601, Aps 614, and one Aps social science elective.
(1198) Lisy-Macan, Lynn
12 Week: May 23-August 12
T 4:00p.m.-6:00p.m.
BB-B04