UAlbany Performing Arts Center "Bringing Literature to Life"

The Performing Arts Center, in conjunction with the New York State Writers Institute, will present two performances of American Place Theatre's "The Secret Life of Bees." This acclaimed company's Literature to Life® series creates professionally staged theatrical adaptations of significant literary works. Based on Sue Monk Kidd's New York Times bestseller of the same name, a young girl's search for the truth about her mother leads her to three beekeeping sisters and the discovery of the real meaning of family.

"This project is made possible in part through a COMMUNITY ART$GRANT, a program funded by The Arts Center of the Capital Region through the State and Local Partnership Program of the New York State Council on the Arts, a State agency." Support is also provided by University Auxiliary Services and Holiday Inn Express.
