

Logging on to UAGuest Wireless

Instructions for logging onto the guest wireless network on-campus

This guide is to help you connect to the guest wireless on campus.

Step 1.

Connect to the UAGuest wireless. These instructions are based on your operating system:

Connecting to UAGuest on XP

1. On the taskbar, right-click on the network icon
2. Click connect to a wireless network.
3. Connect to UAGuest and go to Step 2. (See Below)
Windows XP instructions

Connecting to UAGuest on Vista

1. On the taskbar, right-click on the network icon.
2. Click connect to a network.
3. Connect to UAGuest and go to Step 2. (See Below)

Connecting to UAGuest on Windows 7

1. On the taskbar, right-click on the network icon
2. Click connect to a wireless network.
3. Connect to UAGuest and go to Step 2. (See Below)

Connecting to UAGuest on Mac OS X

1. Open Network Preferences and choose Airport.
2. Connect to UAGuest and go to Step 2. (See Below)

Step 2.

1. Open a web browser, such as Internet Explorer or FireFox.
2. For the username, enter UAGuest (the username is case-sensitive.) Then enter the password given to you. To obtain the password, please contact CAS Computing.
3. Click Submit to connect to the guest wireless network. If entered correctly, it should redirect you to the UAlbany website.