INTERNATIONAL UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS
Opportunity to Improve Your Spoken English

ZESL 1: Oral Communication for International Students (FALL)
- This course is designed for those who wish to improve their speaking and pronunciation skills. Students will work to develop more confidence in speaking and to increase their fluency and comprehensibility. Individualized attention will be given to help students reduce pronunciation errors that cause misunderstanding.
- It is intended for international students who have demonstrated sufficient English language skills to be admitted to the University but who feel they need more practice to improve their spoken English.
  o As a freshman, you should select ZESL 1 as one of the course choices you submit to Advisement Services.
- This course is offered by the Intensive English Language Program. For more information, please visit their website or contact them directly:
