Please answer the following questions in short essay format. Return all items to the Alumni Association no later than 4:00 p.m., October 6, 2011. Finalists will be selected and notified of the interview schedule within two weeks.

1. List any experiences you have had which you believe will aid you as a Student Ambassador (leadership training, co-curricular activities, community service, employment, etc.).
2. Describe the person who has had the most significant influence on your life and explain that influence.
3. What do you hope to gain from serving as a Purple & Gold Student Ambassador?
4. Assume that you are an Ambassador and have been asked to make a five-minute presentation to a group of alumni who were students here from 1975-1980. What would you tell these alumni about life at UAlbany?

I authorize the release of information needed for full consideration of my application, which may include academic and disciplinary records. I further affirm that the information I have provided on this application is true and accurate.
