THE ASRC FALCONER SCIENCE/NATURAL HISTORY SUMMER LECTURE SERIES 2012

TUESDAY EVENINGS - 7:00 p.m.

ASRC WHITEFACE FIELD STATION
110 MARBLE LANE
Wilmington, NY 12997

July 10  RECENT CLOUD COLLECTION EFFORTS AT WHITEFACE MOUNTAIN
Mr. James Dukett, Adirondack Lakes Survey Corp. Program Manager

July 24  MOUNTAIN WEATHER
Burlington, VT’s National Weather Service Meteorologist Mr. Conor Lahiff

August 7  ECOLOGICAL CONUNDRUMS
The history and present invasive species concerns and what we are doing about it.
Senior Wildlife technician Mr. Ben Tabor, NYS DEC

August 21  MEASURING THE CARBON CYCLE OF A SMALL ADIRONDACK LAKE
Dr. Matthew Czikowsky, ASRC – SUNYA will present results of a field study on lake-atmosphere carbon dioxide exchange on Lake Pleasant, NY

September 4  WILD AND WONDERFUL
Mr. David Johnson will present a multi-media slide show of wildlife along with a journey Back To The Land of Make Believe and cold climate gardening.

Tax-deductable donations to sustain the Science/Natural History Lectures may be made by check payable to
The University at Albany Foundation, addressed “Attention: Falconer Fund”