Sexuality & Dating: Education Program for Adolescents

The Center for Autism and Related Disabilities is offering a no-cost group education program on sexuality and relationships for adolescents with autism spectrum disorders.

To be eligible for the program, participants must:

- Be adolescents, ages 12-16
- Have an ASD diagnosis
- Be motivated to participate in an educational program about sexuality and dating
- Have a caregiver who can participate in education sessions
- Commit to six program sessions

Beginning April 24!

For more information, please contact the Center for Autism at 518-442-2574 or e-mail Laura Corona at lcorona@albany.edu