

ROBERT A. LEHMAN III

19 Southerly Ave. • Westchester, New York 17854 • (914) 328 -3977 • Robert@aol.com

OBJECTIVE To gain experience in the Medical field that would increase my knowledge of and enhance my preparation for becoming a physician.

EDUCATION

University at Albany, State University of New York

Masters of Public Health, May 2000

Concentration: Epidemiology and Infectious Disease (GPA 3.54)

Bachelor of Science, May 1996

Majors: Biology, Chemistry

Minor: Chinese

CUMULATIVE GPA – 3.65 MAJOR GPA – 3.74 MINOR GPA – 3.50

EXPERIENCE

UNIVERSITY AT ALBANY, ALBANY, NY

1994-PRESENT

FIRST-AID/EMT

- Work as Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) in major city
- Manage staff of 15 EMTs in coordinating responses to incidents
- Gaining valuable experience with patients as well as hospital procedures
- Learn first hand how to treat patients in emergency situations

ALBANY MEDICAL CENTER, ALBANY, NY

1997-1998

PHYSICIANS AID

- Gained valuable experience in operating room protocol and operating procedures
- Became proficient in Medical terminology and discourse in Academic hospital
- Operated Magnetic Resonance Imaging and computer guided tools for use in surgery on an out-patient basis

BLUE MOUNTAIN RESERVATION, PEEKSKILL, NY

1993-1996

LIFE-GUARD

- Served as Head Life Guard at busy suburban beach during summers
- Certified CPR instructor and lecturer for New York State Park System
- Assisted team members in life saving activities during Coast Guard Rescue Operations
- Became fluent in naval medical procedures during training sessions with Naval Academy in Maryland

ADDITIONAL SKILLS

- Fluent in German and French, Conversational Mandarin
- Very familiar with Windows, (MS Office, Lotus Notes) Mac systems, UNIX OS
- Certified in Medical Informatics from Johns Hopkins Medical School
- Concert Pianist