Martin Luther King Day is a time to re-commit ourselves to the nation by serving in our communities. Join the youth volunteers of the Capital District YMCA’s programs in partnership with the 2014 New York State Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Observance Children’s Literacy Drive, community volunteers, and volunteers from the Albany City School District as we join together to kick off the collection of new books for children from pre-k to high school. Join us to act on Dr. King’s message of service and donate a new book for kids within our communities!

You can donate a new book at any branch of the Capital District YMCA and various CAP COM Federal Credit Union Branches. For more information contact Orville Abrahams oabrahams@cdymca.org
