

Keys to Your Success

**Important Information About Course Availability****

The Communication Department has many majors and an extremely limited number of seats. It is important to note that registration at the university is done by class seniority, so sophomores and first-semester juniors may not always get their first choice of classes. The best course of action is to sign up to receive your permission numbers as soon as possible so you may register.

Do this as early as possible since the first students to register from your registration group will have the best selection of classes.

IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO MAKE SURE YOU ENROLL IN A TIMELY MANNER.

Step 1: Select an Area of Concentration

(See blue sheet) The department offers several areas of concentration. See this list for brief descriptions of content areas and a variety of career possibilities to help you narrow down a discipline.

Step 2: Communication Courses by Concentration Area

(See pink sheet) We offer courses in Organizational Communication & Public Relations, Political Communication, Interpersonal/Intercultural Communication, Mass Communication & New Technologies, and Health Communication. Browse this list to see which classes are offered in each area of concentration.

Step 3: Plan Your Schedule

(See green sheet) Use this sheet to plan out your schedule to register for next semester. Attached to this sheet you will also find a list of faculty advisors (including their research areas) who will be happy to answer any other questions you may have about courses.
