The Thin Line is a powerful 30 minute play of several characters surrounding one woman’s struggle with an eating disorder. This will be followed by a brief panel of experts discussing this important topic.

Breaking the silence on eating disorders.

For more information, please contact Carol Stenger, Coordinator for Health Promotion, 442-5800