

Project SHAPE Presents

Mixin' Up the Sex:

Contemporary Issues in Sexuality

April 16th – 20th

Monday through Thursday
10am-3pm, Campus Center Lobby
Interactive Exhibits Covering Topics Such as HIV/AIDS, Reproductive Health, and Sexual Assault

Monday
12:15pm
Human AIDS Ribbon
Stop by the fountain wearing red and be a part of our Human AIDS ribbon, reflecting on 25 years of AIDS.
Co-Sponsored by the UA chapter of NAACP

Tuesday
7:30 – Campus Center Ballroom
“Can I Kiss You?”
Presented by Mike Domitrz
...a hilarious look at dating, hooking up and communication...
The first 25 attendees receive free T-shirts!

Thursday
12-3pm, CC 375
Free anonymous 20-minute HIV tests available by the Department of Health Staff
First Come, First Served

Events brought to you by Project SHAPE: Sexual Health And Peer Education, University Counseling Center

Special thanks to the Division of Student Success and University Auxiliary Services for their generous support of these events.

For more information contact Carol Stenger, Project SHAPE Director, at 442-5800

Monday
7:30 pm – CC Assembly Hall
Faith and Choice Forum
Join two dynamic religious leaders, Reverend Penny Willis and Rabbi Dennis Ross, for a discussion of the connections between reproductive rights and civil rights in the larger movement for social justice.
Co-Sponsored by University at Albany VOX and Upper Hudson Planned Parenthood
Refreshments will be served

Wednesday
8 pm – CC Terrace Lounge
AIDS in the Black Community
Peggy Patterson Dennis of the NYS AIDS Coalition and Divina Bailey of the Black Legislature Caucus will talk about HIV/AIDS in the Black Community.
Co-Sponsored by the UA chapter of NAACP

Thursday
7-10pm
Movie Night on Alumni
Alden Hall – Movie Room
Come and view “Life Support” an HBO film starring Queen Latifah as an HIV positive woman
Co-Sponsored by Sigma Iota Sigma Multicultural Sorority
Refreshments will be served