

Women as Students and Faculty in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) Education & Careers at UAlbany:

A Roundtable Discussion

Monday
April 20, 2009

10:00 am - 12:00 pm

Location:

Standish Room
Science Library
University at Albany

*This event is sponsored by the Center for Women in Government & Civil Society in collaboration with the University
Commission on Diversity &
Affirmative Action and New York
Women Work!*

Refreshments will be served.

Free and open to the public

For further information, contact
Angie Dalton at 518-442-3894
adalton@uamail.albany.edu

Join Us!!

- Examine the challenges women students and faculty face at UAlbany in achieving their academic and professional goals.
- Identify strategies and institutional practices that UAlbany should consider to enhance the participation of women in STEM.

Faculty Panelists

Jennifer Goodall, Ph.D.

Service Assistant Professor and Assistant Dean, Department of Informatics College of Computing and Information

Louise-Anne McNutt, Ph.D.

Associate Professor, Department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics
School of Public Health

Rabi Ann Musah, Ph.D.

Associate Professor, Department of Chemistry

Shadi Shahedipour-Sandvik, Ph.D.

Assistant Professor, Nanoengineering
College of Nanoscale Science and Engineering

Student Panelists

Kristen Kielbasa

Senior, Information Studies Department, College of Computing and Information

Marie Rosenblatt

Senior, Computer Science Department, College Computing and Information

Moderator

Judith Saidel, Ph.D.

Director, Center for Women in Government & Civil Society and Associate Professor, Department of Public Administration