RANK AND DISCIPLINE	QUALIFICATIONS
Service Associate Professor - School Leadership Department of Educational Administration & Policy Studies The Department of Educational Administration & Policy Studies of the School of Education at the University at Albany, SUNY invites applications for a contract appointment (non-tenure track) as a Service Associate Professor in School Leadership. The Department seeks diverse candidates who demonstrate excellent ability in teaching and service, with a firm commitment to research-supported policies and practices. This position combines opportunities to participate in on-going renewal of the department's school leadership initiatives, including pre-service education and continuing professional development; to facilitate connections to school, district, and state agency partners; and to engage with colleagues whose interests and work span pre-K to post-graduate education, domestic and global. Attractive candidates will have expertise in areas such as supervisory and instructional leadership, finance and human resources in education, school board and community relations, and organizational management and school improvement. Ranked among the top 10 doctoral programs in the field by Academic Analytics, the Department is currently engaged in a comprehensive renewal of its academic programs, a growth in external funding, and an evolving student profile. We are looking for applicants who bring unique perspectives to the development and study of leadership in schools, particularly those who draw from experience and interests in diverse groups and/or diverse educational settings. The ideal candidate will complement and strengths and expertise currently in the Department, while establishing his/her own distinct profile of teaching and service. If applicable, we will seek approval for re-employment in public service of a retired NYS public employee (e.g., retired school administrator).	Required: Earned doctoral degree from a college or university accredited by a U.S. Department of Education (DOE) or internationally recognized accrediting organization, as evidenced by graduate transcript(s) in school leadership or a related field. Applicants must address in their applications their abilities to work with a culturally diverse population. Preferred: Substantial experience in school leadership/governance, experience teaching graduate courses, preparing and/or mentoring entering and experienced school leaders, and experience with externally funded projects and initiatives. Particularly attractive candidates will have experience engaging in applied research related to preK-12 education leadership as evidenced by participation in scholarly and professional presentations/publications and/or external funding. Responsibilities: Teach departmental core courses and courses in school leadership; coordinate field experiences; advise graduate students; develop strong connections to school, district, and state agency partners and actively involve them in the department's mission; develop and maintain external funding; and serve on department, school, and university committees. As appropriate to background and experience, responsibilities may include supervising doctoral students and research; and participating in research related to school leadership and/or school reform. Finalists will be required to give a presentation on their teaching interests. Candidates should submit letter of application, vitae, unofficial graduate transcript(s), and the names of three academic references electronically through Interview Exchange (http://hr.albany.edu/content/faculvac.asp). Applicants are also encouraged to submit writing samples. Materials not submitted electronically should be sent to: Dr. Kathryn Schiller, Search Committee Chair, ED 313, University at Albany, Albany, NY 12222.
SALARY: Competitive STARTING DATE: Sept. 1, 2008 APPLICATION DEADLINE: Review of applications begins Nov. 1, 2007 and continues until the position is filled	APPLY TO: Dr. Kathryn Schiller Search Committee Chair University at Albany – ED 313 Albany, NY 12222 Email: schiller@albany.edu Fax: 518-442-4953
