

Example of Course Sequence for the B.A. Program in Economics, with a minor in Business
(Most minors require six courses, which can be substituted for Business courses below)

Year	Fall semester	Spring semester
Freshman	Principles of Microeconomics (Eco 110) General Education course General Education course General Education course Unrestricted Elective	Principles of Macroeconomics (Eco 111) General Education course General Education course General Education course Unrestricted Elective
Sophomore	Mat 101 (if no precalculus background) or Unrestricted Elective Financial Accounting (Acc 211) General Education course Unrestricted Elective Unrestricted Elective	Calculus (Mat 106, 111, 112, 118) or Eco Tools (Eco 210) Computer Applications in Business (Itm 215) or equivalent General Education course General Education course Unrestricted Elective
Junior	Intermediate Microeconomics (Eco 300) Economics Major Elective* Legal Environment of Business (Law 200) or Business Law (Law 220) General Education course Unrestricted Elective	Intermediate Macroeconomics (Eco 301) Economic Statistics (Eco 320) Economics Major Elective* Business Minor Elective Unrestricted Elective
Senior	Economics Major Elective* Economics Major Elective* Business Minor elective Unrestricted Elective Unrestricted Elective	Economics Major Elective* Economics Major Elective* Business Minor Elective Unrestricted Elective Unrestricted Elective

* Economics elective at the 300-level or above. B.S. has additional requirements, not shown here.

** General Education requirements shown here as Eco 110, Eco 111, calculus, plus 10 other courses. More may be needed.

*** Business minor electives (three required): Acc 222, Bus 250, Fin 300, Law 321, Mgt 341, Mkt 310, and Msi 330.

Example of Course Sequence for the B.S. Program in Economics, with option for the Economics Honors Program

Year	Fall semester	Spring semester
Freshman	Principles of Microeconomics (Eco 110) General Education course General Education course General Education course Unrestricted Elective or Mat 101 (if no precalculus background)	Principles of Macroeconomics (Eco 111) General Education course General Education course General Education course Calculus I or equivalent (Mat 111, 112, or 118)
Sophomore	Intermediate Microeconomics (Eco 300) Minor Elective General Education course Unrestricted Elective Calculus II (Mat 113 or 119) or Unrestricted Elective	Intermediate Macroeconomics (Eco 301) Minor Elective General Education course General Education course Unrestricted Elective
Junior	Economic Statistics (Eco 320) Minor Elective General Education course Unrestricted Elective Mathematics for Economists (Eco 410) or Unrestricted Elective	Applied Econometrics (Eco 420) Economics Major Elective* Minor Elective Unrestricted Elective Unrestricted Elective
Senior	Honors Seminar (Eco 499Z) or Advanced Economics Elective* Economics Elective* Minor Elective Unrestricted Elective Unrestricted Elective	Advanced Economics Elective* Economics Elective* Minor Elective Unrestricted Elective Unrestricted Elective

* Economics elective at the 300-level or above. An advanced elective is 400-level or above.

** General Education requirements shown here as Eco 110, Eco 111, calculus, plus 10 other courses. More may be needed.

***Mat 113 or 119 should be taken by students with a minor or second major in Mathematics. Eco 410 is an alternative to Mat 113 for the Economics B.S.