Marlene Scardamalia
President’s Chair in Education and Knowledge Technologies
OISE/University of Toronto

will speak on

Transforming Teaching and Learning Through Technology

Thursday, November 1
4:00 - 5:00 p.m.
Performing Arts Center - Recital Hall

5:00 p.m. - Reception in Futterer Lounge

Dr. Marlene Scardamalia is a Professor with the Department of Curriculum, Teaching and Learning at OISE. She earned her Ph.D. in Applied Psychology at the University of Toronto, and her research interests focus on cognitive processes, intentional learning and design of computer-supported intentional learning environments. Dr. Scardamalia is active as an editor for a number of leading journals in the field of cognition and learning.

Dr. Scardamalia also directs IKIT, the Institute for Knowledge Innovation & Technology, a worldwide network of innovators working to advance the frontiers of knowledge building in various sectors. Dr. Scardamalia led the team that created CSILE (Computer Supported Intentional Learning Environments), the first networked knowledge building environment for education.

Please RSVP to Sharon Malison at smalison@albany.edu by October 25th.

www.albany.edu/education