CAS Comprehensive Examination

Procedures for the CAS Comprehensive Examination are identical to those for the Doctoral Comprehensive Examination, but the evaluation criteria reflect the objectives of the CAS.

Students will:

* understand educational research and theory and apply it to explain practical situations and improve practice;

* display expertise/ deep knowledge of teaching and learning in their particular area of specialization.