Avoid close contact with people who are sick

By distancing yourself from people who are sick, you allow them the time to recuperate while at the same time minimizing your risk of catching the flu!

For more information about how to prepare for flu season, visit www.albany.edu/h1n1