Explore the history of the human connection to nature at the head of the Hudson River and surrounded by the Adirondack, Catskill, Green, and Berkshire Mountains. Pursue an M.A. or Ph.D. in the Department of History at the University at Albany, SUNY.

We offer:
- Proximity to libraries and archives across New York and New England
- Training in museum studies and digital history
- Access to internship and job opportunities
- Fast-track M.A. degree (1 year + 1 summer)

Our environmental history faculty:
- Michitake Aso, Ph.D., 20th-Century Southeast Asia, Global Environmental History, Health and Disease
- Christopher Pastore, Ph.D., Early America, Atlantic World, Environmental History, Oceanic History
- Kendra Smith-Howard, Ph.D., 20th-Century U.S., Environment and Agriculture, Food History, Consumer Culture and Politics

For more information visit: www.albany.edu/history