Monday, November 2: DAES/ASRC Joint Colloquium- Shaun Marcott
- 4:15 PM – 5:45 PM
- LC 21
- The Department of Atmospheric and Environmental Sciences and the Atmospheric Science Research Center invite you to their joint colloquium featuring, Shaun Marcott of the University of Wisconsin-Madison. All are welcome.

Tuesday, November 3: Max Lifchitz: 50 Years of Piano Music
- 7:00 PM
- Performing Arts Center (Recital Hall)
- $8 general public / $4 students, seniors and UAlbany faculty-staff
- This faculty member performs his new, recent and older compositions for the keyboard, some of them dating back to 1965!

Thursday, November 5: Donald Antrim, fiction writer—Reading
- 4:15 PM - 5:15 PM
- Campus Center Assembly Hall
- Donald Antrim, MacArthur Fellow and frequent New Yorker contributor, has acquired a cult following for brilliant and wildly inventive fiction, including the novels The Verificationist (2000) and The Hundred Brothers (1998). His new story collection is The Emerald Light in the Air (2014). Joseph O’Neill said in Publishers Weekly, “brilliant, antic, emotional… tremendously funny and moving…. I read [these stories] with that dreadful exhilaration that only the best writers can elicit.”

Thursday, November 5 & Friday, November 6: Good Kids (Warning: This production contains discussion of sexual violence which may be triggering to some people.)
- 7:00 PM
- Performing Arts Center (Lab Theatre)
-  Nov. 6th performance: The Honors College has 10 free tickets. If you want to attend please see Ms. Jupin in the Honors College Office in LC 31 and pick-up a ticket. When we run out we will send out an email notification.

- ADVANCE TICKETS: $15 general public / $10 students, seniors & UAlbany faculty-staff. DAY OF SHOW TICKETS: $20 general public / $15 students, seniors & UAlbany faculty-staff.
- Check website for other showings: http://www.albany.edu/pac/theatre_dept.shtml
- Something happened to Chloe after that party last Saturday night. Something she says she can’t remember. Something everybody at school is talking about. Was she raped? Did she ask for it? How could those boys do that to her? Or did they? Set in a high school in the American Midwest in a world of Facebook and Twitter, smart phones and YouTube, Naomi Iizuka's play explores a casual sexual encounter gone wrong and its very public aftermath.

Friday, November 6: Ed Burns, filmmaker and memoirist—Reading
- 4:15 PM - 5:15 PM
- LC 5
- Edward Burns is an award-winning filmmaker, actor, screenwriter, and former UAlbany student. His many films include The Brothers McMullen (1995), winner of “Best Dramatic Film” at Sundance, and She’s the One (1996), which helped launch the careers of Cameron Diaz, Jennifer

Friday, November 6: The Fitzgerald Family Christmas-- Film Screening and Q&A with director Ed Burns
- 7:00 PM - 8:00 PM
- Page Hall Downtown Campus
- Burns returns to the Long Island milieu of his earliest films with this holiday tale of siblings who await the arrival of the father who abandoned them 20 years earlier. The NY Times said Burns “manages the considerable feat of interweaving the personal dramas of 9 members of a boisterous Irish-American clan into a coherent mosaic. [He] shuffles this dense material with the dexterity of a card shark.”

Sunday, November 8: The Choral Hour
- 4:00 PM
- Performing Arts Center (Main Theatre)
- $6 general public / $3 students, seniors and UAlbany faculty-staff
- The University-Community Chorale and University Chamber Singers perform.

Monday, November 9: DAES/ASRC Joint Colloquium- Kevin Reed
- 4:15 PM – 5:45 PM
- LC 21
- The Department of Atmospheric and Environmental Sciences and the Atmospheric Science Research Center invite you to their joint colloquium featuring, Kevin Reed of Stony Brook University. All are welcome.

Tuesday, November 10: Boarding Utopia: Sculpture by Brian Tolle and Oded Hirsh: Three Videos
- 5:30 PM
- University Art Museum, University at Albany
 Special Honors College Tour by Ms. Janet Riker, Museum Director

Friday, November 13: One Flew Over the Cuckoo’s Nest-- Film Screening
- 7:30 PM - 8:30 PM
- Page Hall Downtown Campus
- Directed by Miloš Forman (United States, 1975, 133 minutes, color) Starring Jack Nicholson, Louise Fletcher, Michael Berryman
- In this landmark film of the 1970s, adapted from Ken Kesey’s 1962 novel, a newly-admitted patient in a mental institution attempts to organize a rebellion against the iron-fisted head nurse. The film received five Oscars including Best Picture, Best Actor, Best Actress, Best Director, and Best Screenplay.

Monday, November 16, 2015: University Jazz Ensemble
- 7:00 PM
- Performing Arts Center (Recital Hall) Main Campus
- $6 general public / $3 students, seniors and UAlbany faculty-staff
- The mid-size ensemble presents a concert of popular jazz standards.
Wednesday, November 18, 2015: LLC Seminar: Luis Cuesta
- 1:00 PM - 2:00 PM
- Humanities 354
- Professor Luis Cuesta (University at Albany) will present: “The Sport Body in the Quest for Regaining Lost Youth in Wenceslao Fernandez Florez’s ‘El ladrón de glándulas”

Thursday, November 19: Ginger Strand, nonfiction author-- Seminar, "A Writer in the Archive"
- 2:00 PM - 3:00 PM
- Science Library - M.E. Grenander Department of Special Collections & Archives
- Strand’s new book is The Brothers Vonnegut (2015), a biography of major American satirist Kurt Vonnegut, and long-time UAlbany professor and atmospheric scientist Bernard Vonnegut. She will discuss using manuscripts, letters, dossiers and interviews to trace the fascinating story of two brothers grappling with the moral dilemmas of their time. Sponsored by the NYS Writers Institute; the UAlbany Dept. of History; M.E. Grenander Archives and Special Collections; and NYS Archives Partnership Trust.

Thursday, November 19: Kate Weare Company
- 7:30 PM
- Performing Arts Center (PAC)
The Honors College has 10 free tickets. If you want to attend please see Ms. Jupin in the Honors College Office in LC 31 and pick-up a ticket. When we run out we will send out an email notification.
- ADVANCE TICKETS: $15 general public / $10 students, seniors & UAlbany faculty-staff. DAY OF SHOW TICKETS (pending availability): $20 general public / $15 students, seniors & UAlbany faculty-staff
- Known for its startling combination of formal choreographic values and visceral, emotional interpretation, this fresh, young company highlights its performance with 2015’s Unstruck. Like stones in a river or sound through a tunnel, the dancers forcibly shape themselves and are molded by each other through unceasing contact and energetic exchange.

Friday, November 20: Things to Come-- Film Screening
- 7:30 PM - 8:30 PM
- Page Hall Downtown Campus
- Directed by William Cameron Menzies (United Kingdom, 1936, 100 minutes, b/w)
- Starring Raymond Massey, Edward Chapman, Ralph Richardson
- The human race blunders into a future of pointless world war and rampant plague—but hope endures in this 1936 epic adapted for the screen by sci-fi master H. G. Wells from his 1933 novel. The film is directed by William Cameron Menzies, one of Hollywood’s greatest art directors and production designers, responsible for GONE WITH THE WIND and other classics.

Saturday, November 21: Bach to Broadway
- 7:30 PM
- Performing Arts Center (Recital Hall)
- $6 general public / $3 students, seniors and UAlbany faculty-staff
- Classical, Broadway and pop favorites are presented by voice majors.