Invited Talk: Big Allied and Dangerous – Terrorist Networks

Victor Asal and R. Karl Rethemeyer
University at Albany, SUNY
1400 Washington Ave. Albany, NY 12222
vassal@email.albany.edu, kretheme@albany.edu

Why are some terrorist organizations so much more deadly than others? Why do some target the United States? Why do some organization use or pursue CBRN? This presentation examines organizational characteristics such as ideology, size, age, state sponsorship, alliance connections, and control of territory to see how they can help us understand terrorist organizational behavior.