The Institute for Global Indigeneity (IGI) is a brand new initiative of UAlbany (SUNY), whose goal is to raise the profile of Indigenous Peoples – local, national, and international – and to serve as a repository for campus-wide research, programs, and initiatives that are of interest to Indigenous Peoples around the world. We are committed to working responsively with Native American and other Indigenous researchers, scholars, and students.

Submission Deadline: April 15, 2016
Submit to: igi@albany.edu

The Institute for Global Indigeneity seeks to collaborate with students to develop a logo that captures the spirit of the center.

Begin brainstorming your logo design idea by visiting our website: http://www.albany.edu/indigeneity/

Logo Design criteria:
• Be creative!
• Design should reflect some aspect of the IGI’s mission and purpose

The student who submits the winning design will receive a $250.00 Campus Bookstore gift card.

The Institute for Global Indigeneity (IGI) is a brand new initiative of UAlbany (SUNY), whose goal is to raise the profile of Indigenous Peoples – local, national, and international – and to serve as a repository for campus-wide research, programs, and initiatives that are of interest to Indigenous Peoples around the world. We are committed to working responsively with Native American and other Indigenous researchers, scholars, and students.