1167 Delaware Turnpike, Delmar

6:00 PM, Friday, April 27

The Andersens live at 1167 Delaware Turnpike (Delaware Avenue in Delmar) in the town of New Scotland. It is Route 443. Delaware starts when Lark Street ends in Albany (Madison Ave divides the two.) The Spectrum movie theatre is on Delaware. Go out Delaware Ave. through Delmar, past Hanaford Market, CVS, the Delmar post office, Bethlehem Public Library and eventually Bethlehem Central High School (on the left). Two miles to go. Continue until you come to a railroad underpass. Put on your left turn signal and turn into the second or third driveway after the railroad underpass. This is a white farmhouse with porch. (If you get to the firehouse on the right you have gone too far.) Park out back by the sheep barn, or in parking spaces in front of the house. Do not park on the grass since it is still wet (you'll sink in). Car pooling would be a good idea in any case. Expect to drive for about 25 minutes from the university to our house.

If you get lost, call 439-6153.
