

Fall 2010 Aberystwyth University: Tuition Scholarship

Scholarship Opportunity for UAlbany Students: The University of Aberystwyth, located in Wales, has offered a full tuition scholarship for one University at Albany student for the fall 2010 semester. The scholarship does not include room and board. A full description of actual expenses is outlined below.

To Apply: Please complete the Aberystwyth application and include all of the supporting documentation requested within. In addition to the application, please provide a copy of your financial aid eligibility and your 2010-2011 financial aid package. Decisions will be based on both academic merit and financial need.

Application: Please find the application under “apply now” within the scholarship information. This application process is unique for this program.

Deadline: March 15th. Please submit all materials to the Office of International Education, SL G40

Program Dates: September 27, 2010 through January 29, 2011

We strongly recommend applicants from the Political Science and English departments as these fields are particularly strong at Aberystwyth. Applicants from all academic backgrounds will be considered.

Applicants must take a “Leave of Approved Study” to participate on this program. Please see the Department of Withdrawal and Readmission in the Office of the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education (LC 30) for further details on this process. The Office of Study Abroad and Exchanges can assist students with the application process, however the University of Aberystwyth will be the student’s primary contact for program details. Academic advisors should be consulted regarding UAlbany credit equivalencies.
