SPANISH MA

(30 graduate credits + MA exams)

Concentrations in: Spanish Linguistics
Latin American Literature
Hispanic Cultural Studies

All courses taught in Spanish

Students may take up to 9 of the 30 credits via pertinent coursework in: Linguistics (Dept of Anthropology), Latin American Caribbean Studies, English, or Education Departments

In addition to the regular MA generally completed in 3-4 semesters, options include:

- a combined BA/MA (double-counting up to 12 credits)
- a one-year MA program
- a summer of study abroad in conjunction with any program (up to 6 credits)

MA exams are offered 3 times a year: November/April/August

One-Year Spanish MA

Complete all MA requirements (coursework and MA exams) in one academic year plus one summer.

All MA program coursework optionally includes up to 6 credits of summer study abroad coursework in Madrid, Spain or San José, Costa Rica.

To apply, complete the graduate school application form at: www.albany.edu/graduate/graduate-admissions.php and include three letters of recommendation, a writing sample in Spanish, and a personal interest statement. There is no special designation within the graduate application to apply to the one-year Spanish MA--students should let the graduate advisor know immediately that they would like to finish the degree in one year.

Combined Spanish BA/MA

Benefit: Can double-count up to 12 Spanish credits toward the BA and MA. Students apply to the MA program (generally their junior year) and take the 500-level (rather than the 400-level) classes which can count toward both degrees.

Who qualifies: Spanish majors who have successfully completed between 56 and 110 credits and have at least a 3.2 GPA in their Spanish major
