Beginning with Victor Hugo's epic novel, Les miséables, the course will examine a series of novels (translated from the French) and their cinematic counterparts. To what extent do the films betray, interpret or recast the novels through a different cultural context?

The course will also explore the relatively contemporary phenomenon of writers/auteurs (Marguerite Duras, Sembene Ousmane) who work in both media.

Instructor: Susan Blood
sblood@albany.edu
Languages, Literatures & Cultures
HU 235 – 442-4222
language@albany.edu