This course will examine several literary and artistic works (fiction, photography, film/media) focused on representing and promoting resistance and revolution in Latin America. In addition to analyzing specific literary and artistic works, the course will contextualize the works in the socioeconomic, political, and cultural currents that produced them.

Contact: Prof. Alejandra Aguilar Dornelles maguilardornelles@albany.edu