Alma Mater
College of the Empire State

Mrs. FRANCES HUBBARD

1. College of the Empire State, Mother of an army great,
2. Ways of pleasant ness are thine, Leading where in Wisdom's shrine,

Thou the moulder of our Fate, Thee we sing today.
Joy and cheer, and hope divine, Ever dwell for aye.

Thine the hand with clasp so strong, Holding, tho' the years be long;
Thine the voice whose call we hear, Thine the hand which holds us near,

Thou the burden of our song, Thee we sing today.
Thine the heart, so true, so dear, Cherished, loved alway.
