PROGRAM

Fanfare for a Festival .......................... Ron Nelson, text by Walter Rodby

All Praise!
All praise, all praise!
All praise to music heaven sent!
The voice that lifts all hearts in perfect melody,
And leaves the soul fulfilled with joy and peace.
All praise to music,
Heaven sent in open song!

If Music Be the Food of Love ........ David C. Dickau, text by Henry Heveningham

If music be the food of love, sing on, sing on,
Sing on till I am filled with joy;
For then my list'ning soul you move to pleasures,
to pleasures that can never cloy.
Your eyes, your mien, your tongue declare that you are music everywhere.
Pleasures invade both eye and ear,
So fierce the transports are they wound.
And all my senses feasted are.
Tho' yet the treat is only sound,
Sure I must perish by your charms,
Unless you save me in your arms.
If music be the food of love, sing on, sing on,
Sing on till I am filled with joy
Sing on, sing on, sing on.

Sing Me To Heaven .............................. Daniel Gawthrop, text by Jane Griner

In my heart's sequestered chambers lie truths stripped of poet's gloss.
Words alone are vain and vacant and my heart is mute.
In response to aching silence memory summons half-heard voices,
And my soul finds primal eloquence and wraps me in song.
If you would comfort me, sing me a lullaby.
If you would win my heart, sing me a love song.
If you would mourn me and bring me to God, sing me a requiem,
Sing me to heaven.
Touch in me all love and passion, pain and pleasure,
Touch in me grief and comfort, love and passion, pain and pleasure.
Sing me a lullaby, a love song, a requiem.
Love me, comfort me, bring me to God:
Sing me a love song,
Sing me to heaven.
