AGENDA

Welcome: David Rousseau, Dean, Rockefeller College of Public Affairs and Policy

Keynote Speaker: Kim Klein, Klein and Roth Consulting

Nonprofit Leader Panel: Area Nonprofit Leaders on development and fundraising initiatives and techniques “beyond grant writing” targeting social change, community, and advocacy organizations.

Miki Conn, Hamilton Hill Arts Center
Curran Streett, Pride Center of the Capital Region
Diane Yoder, African Well Fund
Amy Klein, Capital District Community Gardens

Roundtable Discussions: Led by UAlbany Faculty and Seminar Panelists

Many nonprofit organizations struggle to fund social change projects, especially in these tough economic times. Beyond grant writing, what strategies can social change and advocacy nonprofits use to raise revenue while also building support for their missions? How can all nonprofits succeed during challenging economic times? Keynote speaker, Kim Klein, Klein and Roth Consulting, Oakland, CA, is an internationally known speaker, author of five books (including Reliable Fundraising in Unreliable Times), and founder of the Nonprofit Fundraising Journal.

SAVE THE DATE: Friday December 5th: Health Care Reform and the Nonprofit Sector: What Happened and What’s Next?

Series Overview

Emerging Issues in the Nonprofit Sector is a series of nonprofit knowledge and resource-sharing events designed to bring University at Albany (UAlbany) faculty, students, staff and community leaders and experts together to:

- Identify and discuss nonprofit sector issues and concerns
- Share knowledge and expertise and identify issues requiring further research and education
- Coordinate the development and dissemination of knowledge through community-based research, education, and service initiatives
