University at Albany President George M. Philip
Invites You to a Special Capital Region Event

Investing in Young Talent to Grow Our Future and Economy
Strategic Initiatives to Help Children, Communities and Companies Succeed

June 16, 2011, 7:45 - 9:30 a.m.
UAlbany Uptown Campus, SEFCU Arena, Hall of Fame Room

7:45-8:15  Networking, Coffee and Danish
8:15-9:30  President George Philip: Linkages as Key to the Future

Panel & Discussion: Moderated by Robert Bangert-Drowns, Dean, UAlbany School of Education

Albany’s Promise Cradle-to-Career Network
  • Nancy L. Zimpher, Chancellor, State University of New York
  • Raymond Colucciello, Superintendent, City School District of Albany
  • The Honorable Barbara Smith, Co-founder, the Albany Family Education Alliance and Albany Common Council Member
  • Katharine Briar-Lawson, Dean, School of Social Welfare, UAlbany

Healthy Children
  • Rachel de Long, M.D., Director, Bureau of Maternal and Child Health, NYS Department of Health, and Clinical Professor, School of Public Health, UAlbany
  • David S. Strogatz, Co-Director, Research Core, UAlbany’s Center for the Elimination of Minority Health Disparities and Associate Professor, School of Public Health, UAlbany

Young Entrepreneurs
  • Donald S. Siegel, Dean, School of Business, UAlbany

By invitation only — Please respond by June 13 to President’s Office presrsvp@uamail.albany.edu or 956-8010
When responding, please include your name, title, organization/affiliation, and e-mail address (if desired for future mailings)

Free parking is available in the Parking Lot of the SEFCU Arena  Enter the campus at the Western Avenue entrance, turn left, go a short way and turn right into the parking lot for the SEFCU arena. Map #7 on: www.albany.edu/maps.php

2nd Annual President’s Community Engagement Event • Visit UAlbany-Community Connections: www.albany.edu/outreach