Wednesday, November 16, 2016
12:00 – 12:45 PM
Classroom 3
University at Albany School of Public Health
George Education Center | One University Place
Rensselaer, NY 12144

This talk is presented by the
International Division,
Department of Emergency Medicine
at SUNY Downstate Medical Center

As part of the SUNY Global Health Institute’s
2016–2017 Virtual Grand Rounds Series

To find out more about this talk and the SUNY Global Health Institute, please contact John Justino (jjustino@albany.edu)
at the Center for Global Health

---

Refugee Health in the Global Context

Dr. Megan Coffee, MD PhD
Founder and Executive Director - Ti Kay Haiti
&
Technical Advisor
International Rescue Committee

- Overview of current refugee health issues and challenges worldwide
- Protecting the health of refugees and internally displaced people (IDPs)
- What is our obligation to protect the health of refugees and IDPs?
- What can we learn from Ebola and the recent disaster in Haiti?