As outlined in the Laws of New York 2002 Chapter 350 known as the “Apparel Workers Fair Labor Conditions and Procurement Act”, and further by Chapter 562 in the Laws of New York 2003, The University at Albany, SUNY shall not enter into a contract to purchase or obtain for any purpose any apparel and/or sports equipment from a vendor unable or unwilling to provide documentation: (A) attesting that such apparel and/or sports equipment was manufactured in compliance with all applicable labor and occupational safety laws, including, but not limited to, child labor laws, wage and hour laws and workplace safety laws; (B) stating, if known, the name and address of each subcontractor to be utilized; and (C) stating, if known, all manufacturing plants utilized by the vendor or subcontractor. The University has the authority to determine that a vendor on a contract for the purchase of apparel and/or sports equipment is not a responsible vendor based upon either of the following considerations: (A) The labor standards applicable to the manufacture of the apparel and/or sports equipment, including but not limited to employee compensation, working conditions, employee rights to form unions, and the use of child labor, or (B) the vendors failure to provide information sufficient for the University to determine the labor conditions applicable to the manufacture of the apparel and/or sports equipment.
