The Albany City Area Reading Council is a professional, not-for-profit organization for educators in the Capital Region concerned with improving literacy instruction and opportunities for all children and adults.

ACARC seeks to:

- encourage the study of and interest in literacy
- serve as a support and networking organization for educators
- sponsor professional development conferences and meetings for educators

Membership includes notification of all scheduled events and an opportunity for professional interaction. Members of ACARC are automatically members of the New York State Reading Association and will receive notification of all NYSRA scheduled events and the Language and Literacy Spectrum.
