

ROCKEFELLER COLLEGE OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS & POLICY

UNIVERSITY AT ALBANY
State University of New York

In the fall of 1946 Governor Thomas E. Dewey authorized the creation of The Albany Graduate Program in Public Administration. The first students enrolled in September 1947. The Albany Graduate Program evolved into the SUNY Graduate School of Public Affairs, which became part of the University at Albany in 1966 and is now the Nelson A. Rockefeller College of Public Affairs and Policy.

2009

Alumni Reception and Awards Ceremony
Celebrating 60 Years of Graduate Education for Public Service

2009 Alumni Award Recipients

Joseph N. Garba B.A. '02, MPA '05

Deputy Director,
Governor's Office of Taxpayer Accountability
Rockefeller College Young Alumni Award

Craig Johnson MPA '87, Ph.D. '93

Associate Professor,
Indiana University at Bloomington
School of Public and Environmental Affairs
Public Administration Program Distinguished Alumni

Jennifer Manner B.A. '86

Deputy Chief for Public Safety and Homeland Security,
Federal Communications Commission
Political Science Program Distinguished Alumni

Kevin Bronner B.A. '70, MPA '84, Ph.D. '92

Rockefeller College Public Service Professor &
Retired Fiscal Analyst, Public Service Commission
Distinguished Service Award

Richard Iannello

Executive Director,
Albany Guardian Society
Distinguished Continuing Professional Education Leadership Award of Excellence

For additional program information, please visit www.albany.edu/rockefeller

Jeffrey D. Straussman

Dean, Rockefeller College
University at Albany

invites you to join members of the

Rockefeller College of Public Affairs & Policy

at the

Alumni Reception and Awards Ceremony

Thursday, November 19, 2009

Reception – 5:30-6:30 pm
Awards Ceremony – 6:30 pm

Rockefeller Institute of Government

411 State Street
Albany, NY

$20 per person

RSVP online by November 12, 2009 at www.albany.edu/alumni/register.htm