

Curriculum Vitae: Andrew L. B. Davies

663 Hudson Ave, Albany NY 12203

518 209 9571

ad421323@albany.edu

Education

- 2004-Present PhD student in Criminal Justice (SUNY Albany).
2006 MA Criminal Justice (SUNY Albany): GPA 4.0.
2004 MSc Criminology (Oxford University): Distinction, First in class.
Thesis title: Can Responsibilised Communities Care?
2002 MA Modern History (Oxford University): 2.1.
Thesis title: Pettie Colonies: American Settlement and English Family Values 1580-1640.

Honors

- 2006 Frank Remington Award for Interdisciplinary Study in Law and Social Science.
2004-2007 Michael Hindelang Fellow of Criminal Justice, SUNY Albany.
2004 Roger Hood prize for Criminology, Oxford University.
2002 C. V. Wedgwood prize for History, Oxford University.

Research Interests

- Criminal victimization
- Just world theory
- State criminal justice policy

Teaching Experience

- 'Crime and Justice' at Oxford Prep Experience, 2006 & 2007, Oxford University, UK.
- 'Introduction to Criminological Theory' (teaching assistant) fall 2005, SUNY Albany.
- 'The Death Penalty in America' presentation at several British high schools.

Publications (present and forthcoming)

- Andrew Davies and Alissa Worden, "Criminal Justice Policy Across the United States: Due Process in the Punitive Turn" in I. Morgan & P. Davies (eds.) The Federal Nation: Perspectives on American Federalism (New York: Palgrave, forthcoming 2008).
- Jonathan Gradess and Andrew Davies, "The Cost of the Death Penalty in America: Directions for Future Research" in C. Lanier, W. Bowers & J. Acker (eds.) Capital Punishment: The Defining Issues for the Next Generation (Durham, NC: Carolina Academic Press, forthcoming 2008).
- Review of 'Shooters' in American Politics Review (vol. 49, Jun 2007)
- 'Sir Charles Rowan and Sir Richard Mayne' in Routledge Encyclopedia of Police Science (3rd ed., New York, Routledge)

Publications under review

- Andrew Davies & Alissa Worden, "State Politics and Indigent Defense: A Comparative Analysis", revised & resubmitted to Law & Society Review, Dec 2007.
- Alissa Worden & Andrew Davies, "Protecting Due Process in a Punitive Era: An Analysis of Changes in Providing Counsel to the Poor", revised & resubmitted to Studies in Law, Politics & Society, Feb 2008.

Conference Presentations

2007

- ‘Criminal victimization: a Just World perspective’, American Society of Criminology, Atlanta GA.
- ‘Due Process Orientation: a counterpoint to the Punitive Turn?’, American Society of Criminology, Atlanta GA.
- ‘Moral psychology and victimization experiences’, Justice Studies Association, Newport, RI.
- ‘Indigent defense policy 1982-2002’, The Federal Nations of North America, British Library, UK. Conference organized by Eccles Centre at the British Library & Institute for the Study of the Americas. (Invited presentation)

2006

- ‘The determinants of indigent defense policy’, American Politics Group, Leicester, UK.
- ‘Perceiving Victimization’, American Society of Criminology, Los Angeles CA

2005

- ‘The Determinants of Indigent Defense Funding’, American Society of Criminology, Toronto ON

2003

- ‘Community effects as mitigation evidence’, National Legal Aid and Defender Association, Life in the Balance, Austin TX

Affiliations & Activities

- Former president, SUNY Albany Criminal Justice Graduate Student Association.
- Member, American Society of Criminologists.
- Member, International Society for Justice Research.
- Editorial Board, Journal of Criminal Justice and Popular Culture.

Employment experience

2005-Present

Researcher at New York State Defender's Association, Albany NY.

- Performed data collection and analysis for this advocacy and backup center for defense lawyers.

2002-3

Intern at Multi-County Public Defender's Office, Atlanta GA.

- Gathered mitigation evidence on capital cases.
- Visited prisons, met with inmates and their families.
- Developed protocol for the use of 'community effects' evidence as mitigation in capital cases.

2001

Researcher in BBC Analysis and Research department.

- Provided backup and support to news reporters.