Note: These data include law enforcement officers killed or assaulted in the line of duty who were employed by the U.S. Departments of Homeland Security, the Interior, Justice, and the Treasury; the U.S. Capitol Police; and the U.S. Postal Inspection Service. These Federal entities employ the majority of the personnel responsible for protecting government officials, and enforcing and investigating violations of Federal laws. The Federal Bureau of Investigation's Uniform Crime Reporting Program annually contacts these departments and requests information on officers who were killed or assaulted in the line of duty. All assaults and threats of assault are included in the analysis even if no injury to an officer resulted, as are assaults that resulted in the death of an officer (Source: 2010, [Online]. Available: <http://www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/ucr/leoka/leoka-2010/methodologyfederal-2010>).

Some data have been revised by the Source and may differ from previous editions of SOURCEBOOK.

<sup>a</sup>Deaths of two Federal officers resulting from the events of Sept. 11, 2001 are not included.

<sup>b</sup>The U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) was established as a result of the Homeland Security Act of 2002. The U.S. Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement, formerly the Immigration and Naturalization Service, was moved from the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) to DHS. The U.S. Customs Service (renamed the Bureau of Customs and Border Protection) and the U.S. Secret Service were moved from the U.S. Department of the Treasury to the DHS.

<sup>g</sup>In accordance with the Homeland Security Act, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, formerly the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, was moved from the U.S. Department of the Treasury to the DOJ.
