Note: On Mar. 1, 2003, the Immigration and Naturalization Service transitioned to the U.S. Department of Homeland Security and two bureaus were formed to handle enforcement activities: U.S. Customs and Border Protection and U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement. Some data have been revised by the Source and may differ from previous editions of SOURCEBOOK.

<sup>a</sup>Includes all Border Patrol apprehensions and Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) administrative apprehensions and criminal arrests. For fiscal year 2004, includes Border Patrol apprehensions and ICE administrative apprehensions only: excludes ICE criminal arrests.

<sup>b</sup>Includes compulsory and confirmed deportations pursuant to an order by an immigration judge. Also includes exclusions of arriving aliens, which involve denial of entry into the United States based on a finding of inadmissibility by an immigration judge or by authority of immigration officials through an expedited removal process.

<sup>d</sup>A form of relief from formal removal under which an alien is permitted to depart voluntarily. Most of the voluntary departures are Mexican nationals who have been apprehended by the U.S. Border Patrol and are returned to Mexico.

<sup>e</sup>The 3-month period, July 1-Sept. 30, 1976.
