Urban Indian Issues in New York City and Buffalo
Originally presented on May 28, 2015

Speakers:
Shaylynn Raphaelito
Health Department Director, American Indian Community House
Michael Martin
Executive Director, Native American Community Services of Erie and Niagara Counties, Inc.

Participants will learn about the history of Indian Health Services. The history and socio-cultural norms of some American Indian communities within New York State will also be discussed. Specific service provision barriers encountered with within Indian Health Services will be presented along with strategies to identify and collaborate with community partners.

Learning Objectives
After watching this webinar participants will be able to:

- Understand the Indian Health Service system and its challenges in urban settings
- Recognize Urban Indian issues in health care
- Identify community partners and resources to help connect your own clinical work with broader social justice advocacy.
- Identify the origins of some of the socio-cultural norms in Haudenosaunee and other American Indian communities in New York State.

Continuing Nurse Education
The School of Public Health, University at Albany is an approved provider of continuing nurse education by the Massachusetts Association of Registered Nurses, Inc., an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation.

This offering is approved for 1.5 nursing contact hour(s).

Continuing Medical Education
The School of Public Health, University at Albany is accredited by the Medical Society of the State of New York (MSSNY) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.
The School of Public Health, University at Albany designates this live material for a maximum of 1.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Certified Health Education Specialist
Sponsored by the School of Public Health, University and Albany, SUNY, a designated provider of continuing education contact hours (CECH) in health education by the National Commission for Health Education Credentialing, Inc. This program is designated for Certified Health Education Specialists (CHES) and/or Master Certified Health Education Specialists (MCHES) to receive up to 1.5 total Category I contact education contact hours. Maximum advanced-level continuing education contact hours available are 0.

Certified in Public Health
This event is sponsored by School of Public Health, University at Albany, an approved provider of CPH Renewal Credits by the National Board of Public Health Examiners.

This offering is approved for 1.5 Certified in Public Health Renewal Credit(s).

The planners and faculty participants do not have any financial arrangements or affiliations with any commercial entities whose products, research or services may be discussed in these materials.

No commercial funding has been accepted for this activity.