Legislation:

- N.Y. Civil Rights Law § 79-e (McKinney 2002) guarantees a mother the right to breastfeed her baby any place she has the right to be, public or private, even if the nipple is exposed during or incidental to breastfeeding.
- N.Y. Corrections Law § 611 (McKinney 2002) provides that when a woman is committed to a correctional institution and gives birth or is nursing a child in her care under one year of age, the child may accompany/remain with her in the institution.
- N.Y. Penal Law §§ 245.01, 245.02 (Mckinney 2002) exempts breastfeeding from laws governing indecent exposure and from laws prohibiting the promotion of indecent exposure.
- Labor Law 206-c: Rights of Nursing Mothers in the Workplace
- PHL 2505-a, Breastfeeding Mothers’ Bill of Rights (BFMBR)
  - Effective May 2010, the BFMBR informs mothers about their rights to breastfeed.
  - Hospitals and providers must provide pregnant women at the time they register and/or are admitted to the hospital with a copy
  - Two Bills passedSigned December 2015 that amended the BFMBR
• A.7202-A / S.5183: Adds Labor Law 206-c which covers use of paid break and meal times and reasonable unpaid breaks for expressing breast milk in the workplace.
• A.6506-A / S.1528-A: Requires child day care facilities to support mothers and post BFMBR
