AIM Statement (aka SMAART objective) Worksheet:

1. AIM Statement (include your draft AIM Statement and edit as you work through the criteria in #2 below).

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

2. Review the AIM Statement again for the components of a SMAART objective (Specific, Measureable, Actionable, Achievable, Realistic and Timely).

- SPECIFIC – Is the statement precise about what you hope to achieve?

________________________________________________________________________

- MEASURABLE – Are the objectives measureable? Will you know if the change resulted in improvement?

________________________________________________________________________

- ACTIONABLE – Are “who,” ”what,” “when,” and “where” defined?

________________________________________________________________________

- ACHIEVABLE – Is this doable in the time you have? Are you attempting too much? Could you do more?

________________________________________________________________________

- REALISTIC – Do you have the necessary resources (people, time, support)?

________________________________________________________________________

- TIMELY – Do you identify the timeline? When will you accomplish each part?

________________________________________________________________________