Could You Be At Risk for Diabetes?

This office participates in the New York State Diabetes Prevention Program (NYS DPP). Talk to your health care provider today to find out more about the NYS DPP and determine if you are eligible to participate in this exciting, 16-week lifestyle modification program to help prevent diabetes.

For more information, please contact:

Promotional support for the NYS DPP is provided by the New York State Department of Health Diabetes Prevention and Control Program. The NYS DPP is part of the National Diabetes Prevention Program, led by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.