UAlbany FOOTBALL 2003

SCHEDULE HIGHLIGHTS

UAlbany, the defending Northeast Conference champion, will play a seven-game conference slate, and meet non-conference opponents Northeastern, an NCAA Division I-AA playoff team, Brown from the Ivy League, Towson and St. Peter's. The Great Danes begin their fifth Division I-AA campaign on Saturday, Sept. 6 with Northeastern. The Huskies made their first NCAA appearance by sharing the 2002 Atlantic 10 Conference championship. UAlbany opens its home schedule with Brown on Sept. 20. The Great Danes will be playing an Ivy League school for the first time. Stony Brook is the opponent for Homecoming and Family Weekend on Oct. 25. Hall of Fame Day is set for Oct. 4 against St. Peter's in the first meeting between the two programs. In addition, Sacred Heart and Robert Morris, a pair of past NEC champions, will visit University Field. All home games start at 1:00 p.m. Head coach Bob Ford will return 15 starters, including eight on offense and seven on defense. Gary Jones, a second-team Associated Press All-America tailback, leads the returnees after rushing for 1,509 yards, scoring 23 touchdowns, and setting nine school records as a junior.
