Tentative MSW Classes Open to Non-degree Students

The following courses in the School of Social Welfare are open for non-degree students. Seats will be allocated in the order in which request are received. Visit <http://www.albany.edu/ssw/aprograms/nondegree/index.html> for information on registering for nondegree courses in the School of Social Welfare. Nondegree applications can be obtained from the following website: <http://www.albany.edu/graduate/applyonline.shtml>. Applications should be submitted to The Office of Graduate Admissions, University at Albany, 1400 Washington Ave., Albany, NY 12222, or you may submit applications online. All courses require a bachelor's degree on file with Graduate Admissions.

Non-degree students may take one or two courses each semester.

A maximum of 12 credits of graduate course work taken as a non-matriculated student may apply toward the MSW degree.

The credits must fulfill MSW requirements at the time you matriculate, and the courses must be taken within 3 years of your matriculation date.
