SEX, AN ADDICATION? Is the brain and mind addicted to itself?

Presenter: Neil J. Cervera, L.C.S.W., Ph. D.

2.5 Continuing Education hours

All levels of professionals can benefit from this topic on sex addiction. Participants will be involved in understanding sex addiction from a bio-psycho-social and ecological viewpoint. Participants will be given evaluative tools, DSMV overview as well as intervention strategies to help clients develop a healthy attitude toward sexuality and intimacy. Participants will also learn skills and self-help techniques for the benefit of intervening with clients.

Date: Friday April 29, 2016
Time: 2:00pm – 4:30pm
Location:
UAlbany Downtown Campus, 135 Western Ave, Albany, NY

Online registration is required for this event- go to http://tinyurl.com/j6lgsut to reserve your spot, as space is limited.
Cost: $50 ($25 for SSW field instructors).
This event is approved for 2.5 CE hours.

There are a limited number of scholarships for current SSW students and new social workers for this event. Please email if interested: sswceu@albany.edu

University at Albany, School of Social Welfare is recognized by the New York State Education Department’s State Board for Social Work as an approved provider of continuing education for licensed social workers
About the Presenter:
Neil J. Cervera, L.C.S.W., Ph. D.

Dr. Neil Cervera is a licensed clinical social worker in New York State and has been in private practice for over thirty years. Dr. Cervera received his doctorate and master’s degrees from New York University, School of Social Work. Dr. Cervera had a N.I.M.H trainingship for Forensics and Addiction. He is a Research Assistant Professor Emeritus from the University at Albany, SUNY School of Social Welfare. He is a consultant for the CSX and Canadian Pacific railroads, the Trinity Alliance, Homer-Perkins program; a residential treatment center for substance abusers and the Consultation Center in Albany, N.Y. Dr. Cervera’s clinical interest includes working with couples and individuals as well as evaluating and treating alcohol and substance using patients.