A Conversation with Dr. Beverly Guy-Sheftall

Gender as an analytic category: implications for research on women

Tuesday, October 8, 2013 from 1 – 2:30 pm
Husted Amphitheater, Downtown Campus

Beverly Guy-Sheftall is the founding director of the Women’s Research and Resource Center at Spelman College and the Anna Julia Cooper Professor of Women’s Studies. She is also adjunct professor at Emory University’s Institute for Women’s Studies. She has published a number of texts within African American and Women’s Studies which have been noted as seminal works by other scholars. In 1983 she became founding co-editor of Sage: A Scholarly Journal of Black Women which was devoted exclusively to the experiences of women of African descent. She is the past president of the National Women’s Studies Association (NWSA).
