

You are invited to a Research to Practice Symposium:

The Relationship of Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) to Adult Health and Well-being

Tuesday, September 23, 2008

2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Arthur Levitt Room, Page Hall, U Albany Downtown Campus (<http://apps.albany.edu/maps/>)

For more information, email hlarkin@uamail.albany.edu

Dr. Vincent Felitti

Department of Preventive Medicine

Kaiser Permanente

Panel

Carolyn Smith, Ph.D., Professor and Doctoral Chair, U Albany School of Social Welfare

Laura Hopson, Ph.D., Assistant Professor, U Albany School of Social Welfare

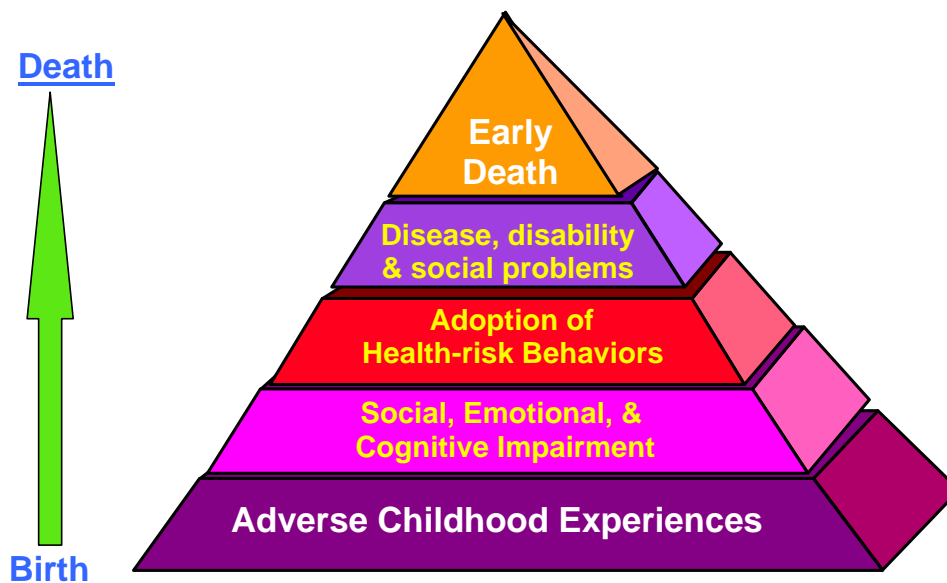

Lani Jones, Ph.D., Assistant Professor, U Albany School of Social Welfare

Heather Larkin, Ph.D., Assistant Professor, U Albany School of Social Welfare

Nina Esaki, Ph.D., Research Scientist, Center for Human Services Research

Ben Shaw, Ph.D., Associate Professor, U Albany School of Public Health

Elana Gordis, Ph.D., U Albany School of Arts and Sciences

The Potential Influence of Adverse
Childhood Experiences throughout the Lifespan

Sponsored by

Schuyler Center for Analysis and Advocacy &

The Social Work Education Consortium, U Albany School of Social Welfare

There is no charge for the symposium