How to Apply

The Living-Learning Community application is part of the University at Albany’s housing application process and will be available to you when you apply for housing through MyUAlbany as of May 1, 2017.

- Select the L-LC you would like to join from the list.
- Select your intended major (including “undecided”), so that the staff in Student Engagement can be sure the preferred L-LC will be a good fit for you.
- Tell us why you would like to be a member of the L-LC you have chosen and how you can contribute to that particular community.

Students who are selected to be members of their chosen L-LC will be notified via University at Albany e-mail beginning late June.

Questions about the L-LCs can be directed to Student Engagement at studentengagement@albany.edu.

General questions about housing and roommate assignments can be directed to the Department of Residential Life at reslife@albany.edu.

The Office of the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education works to provide opportunities and pathways for students to be active and engaged in their studies, both inside and outside the classroom.

World of Business

The World of Business is designed for incoming freshmen who are planning to major in business. Students in this Living-Learning Community live and take classes with other freshmen who share an interest in business or accounting and are introduced to the academic and social expectations of a career in business through co-curricular activities. In the past, some of these events have included:

- Workshops on résumé building, professional etiquette, networking, and interview skills
- Guest speakers who work in the field
- Social gatherings with your L-LC friends
- Presentations on how to find and secure internship opportunities
- Meetings with representatives from the Big Four accounting firms

Note: Students who have been directly admitted to the School of Business are not eligible for this Living-Learning Community. This community is generously supported by EY.

Faculty interaction outside the classroom is directly linked to student satisfaction and enhanced learning.
